1. From Grandstands to Galleries

Best known for being a solid wall in defence for NTFL side Saint Mary's, young rising star Jason Puruntatameri is now turning his attention to his work to being featured on the wall!

A natural artist, his first two paintings he ever completed, through a St John's College year 12 art program, are now showing at the NT Museum and Art Gallery, as part of the 'Exitart' exhibit, from 26 February to 2 July 2011. These works are available for purchase.

Starwin Management facilitated a photo and story opportunity with NT News for Jason, offering him a sneak preview of his works on 22 February. Jason hopes people will enjoy seeing his paintings on the wall, which represent his country and the hunting lifestyle of his homelands (Tiwi Islands).
